2. [REDACTED] After the Committee meeting above, Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services Committee, asked about the Intelligence Evaluation Committee referenced in the President's press release of 22 May 1973. He said this is a Committee that did not appear to fit in the community structure outlined by General Allen. After checking with [REDACTED] I told Nedzi that this Committee was formerly chaired by Assistant Attorney General Mardian and that it has been an active Committee. He asked me to run down the present chairman, the Agency representative on the Committee, and its origins in executive order or whatever.
